LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES. - War Depart ment, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Oct. 23, 1877-10:30 a. m.— For the Middle Atlantic States, warmer, clear or partly cloudy weather, light southerly winds, stationary or lower pressure, possibly followed in the northwest by rain areas.

COLORED CONSERVATIVES .- The executive committee of the colored conservative club, headed by Magnus L. Robinson, the chairman, accompanied by R. B. Hopkins, the president of the club, had an interview last night with ex-Alderman John A. Seaton, formerly of this city, but now of New York, where he is holding a position as Deputy Sheriff of that eity and county. He was found at home on West street, and was introduced to the committee by the chairman, who asked him his views on the political situation. He replied that he welcomed the representatives of the colored conservative club with the utmost cordiality, and that he was with them heart and hand, and regretted exceedingly that he could not remain longer than Tuesday (to night) to assist them in the cause they have entered upon the result of which will bring about peace and harmony among all the classes; and it is high time for the colored vote to be east for the interests of those who lend them a helping hand, and to do away wi le all this radicalism, of which Hayes himself is cleansing his party by his conciliatory policy towards the South. He carnestly hoped that a solid vote would be east for Col. F. W. M. Holliday for the Gubernatorial chair, and said that he had unbounded confidence in the nominees of the conservative party of his home, and that the workingmen and colored men would add to their welfare by having such gentlemen to look after their interests, and closed by saying that his whole soul was with the Southern people of his home, and he urged upon the club to work with a vim and will, and the har vest would yield results that would insure prosperity, peace and good will to all classes of the people. He thanked the callers for their at The committee replied that they were highly gratified at the interview, and retired.

DR. BAGBY'S LECTURE. - Dr. G. W. Big by, (Mosis Addums,) author of "Meckin's Twinses," will deliver his justly colebrated lacture, entitled "The Virginia Negro," on Fri day evening next, at Peabody Hall, for the benefit of the Alexandria Library. The Doctor ought to be greeted with a large audience, as this is said to be one of the best of bir humor ous lectures, and cannot fail both to amuse and instruct. The Lynchburg Virginia says : - "The lecture was a brilliant characterization of the Virginia negro, sparkling with wit and humor. while ever and anon there shone up real beauty and pathos to give variety and tone to the RECOVERED .- Mention has been heretofere made in the Gazette of the 'oss of the book containing the list of the holders of city bonds, and the book was subsequently advertised. Last night shortly after dark, Mr. E. H. Eaton, the janitor, on opening the Auditor's office, found the missing book lying upon the floor, it having been thrown through the open transom over the door. It is believed that the book was purloined by some one of the opponents of the scheme for adjusting the corporation debt, for the purpose of obtaining a list of the bandholders, and furthering their opposition.

M. E. Church.-A large congregation assembled in this church last evening. Rev. W. R. Graham preached an able and telling dis-course from Heb. 111, 2, "O Lord revive thy work." The impressions produced on Christians were deep, and a stirring prayer meeting followed. Although no invitation was given, one enquirer presented herself for prayers. Rav. Dr. Morgan will preach this evening and tomorrow. Dr. Morgan is known to many in the community as an able and elequent preacher, having served twice as pastor of the M. E.

NARROW ESCAPE. - On Sunday night, while Mr. Arthur C. Kell was sitting beside a table in his residence, on St. Asaph street, with his wife and young daughter near him, a part of F A Reed. the ceiling gave way and covered all three of Schr R Peterson, Brooklyn, by W A Smoot. them with the falling plaster. A lighted lamp, full of oil, was standing on the table, but fortu nately it was not broken, or serious results might have ensued. Mr. Kell was considerably bruised by some of the larger lumps of plaster.

MARRIAGE.—The marriage of Robert Ball, jr., of this city, to Miss Emma Sanno, of Car lisle, Pa., took place yesterday at the Baptist Church, Georgetown, Rev. G. W. Beale, the pastor, officiating. After the ceremony the couple left for a trip to South Carolina and Georgia.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT .- Mention was made in yesterday's Gazette of a reported homicide near Burko's Station. The facts, as since d veloped, seem to be that a warrant had been issued for the arrest of a negro man named Thomas Fields, and had been placed in the hands of Constable Sartin, who, accompanied by a posse comitatus, proceeded to Fields' house to execute it. Fields, however, refused to be arrested and made resistance, and during the melce which cosued his wife was dangerously wounded in the body. The other parties in the house who aided Fields in his resistance, together with Fields himself, were arrested and committed to jail at Fairfax C. H. The wound ed woman was not dead, at last accounts.

PERSONAL. - Captain James H. Gillis, U. S. N., formerly of this city, has been ordered to the command of the receiving ship Franklin, at Norfolk, on November 1.

Rev. Dr. Norton, one of the delegates from Virginia to the Episcopal General Convention in Boston, returned home last night.

Among the strangers in the city is Gen. G. W. C. Lee, President of Washington and Lee University.

CONTRACT AWARDED .- The Committee on the Poor of the City Council met at the Auditor's office at noon to day and opened the bids for furnishing wood to the poor. There were six bids, and the contract was awarded to Capt. H. P. Datee, of the steamer Arlington, to furnish one bundred cords of oak wood, at $3,35 per cord, and one hundred cords of pine, at $2.85 per cord.

REGISTRATION .- The registration books in the several wards of the city will be reopened on Thursday morning and will remain open for three days. All voters who have become of age, or who have changed their residences since the last registration, should see that their names are properly registered, so as to enable them to vote at the coming election.

DISAPPOINTED, -A number of gentlemen from this city started this morning for Baltimore to attend the Pimlico races, not having heard of their postponement. Their disgust on their arrival at the track, and the energetic remarks consequent upon their disappointment, have been furnishing food for merriment to their friends here to day.
